President of the Argentine Nation

Buenos Aires, March 24, 1980

Dear Mr. President:

I am very pleased to answer your letter of February 15, 1980, in which you expressed your desire, of which I had previously been informed by General Goodpaster, to maintain close contacts in order to consider at any time issues that are vitally important to both of our nations.

As you indicated, Argentina is also concerned about the fate of the West, the preservation of its basic values, and the protection of its basic interests.

That is what I expressed to your distinguished personal representative, and I wish to repeat it on the propitious occasion of this exchange of correspondence which will undoubtedly contribute to direct, candid, and on-going communication.

Cordially,

[Signature]

His Excellency
The President of the United States of America,
Jimmy Carter,
Washington, D.C.
